

DUAL STATES OF CONSCIOUSNESS

June 25, 1916

Orig Mss

(7) 1

Sunday, June 25th 1896

Dual States of Consciousness,

— Matt 2:1-12 —

Ident Pray!

Look unto me and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I saw God, and there is none else. — Isa. 45:22.

Herod - Haman will and mortal consciousness. His wife, Herodias, represents the sensuous soul.

She rules her husband, the wife, through sensation. John, the illumined intellect, beholds the evils of the sensuous soul and condemns them. Herodias where Herodius is revenged. Condemnation is possible only when the error is looked upon as real. When John condemned as evil the abandonment of Philip

 her husband, and also
 her uncle, and her
 marriage to another
 uncle, Herod, who was also brother of her former husband, Philip, he brought down upon his head
 her anger. When her daughter, representing voluptuous sensation in man, danced before Herod, he was so intoxicated that he told her he would give her whatever she asked, even to half his Kingdom. It was then her mother took revenge on Jahu, by inciting her daughter to ask for the head of Jahu on a charger. The King greatly regrets that he had made such ^[5] 5 rash promises, but he made his word good and John was ~~betrayed~~ executed and the gory head presented to Herod on a charger.

Lessons - Kien - weakness of will.

Condemning evil by one who has rec'd the illumination. Jesus did not condemn the adulterous woman. He saw

[6] 6

that it could be done away with by righteous conduct, and said to be, "Thy sins be forgiven thee; go and sin no more."

Evil is not real.

It exists because men
and women do not know
the high law of control.
All true joy comes from mastery, dominion. It is to the overcomer that the joys of heaven are promised.

Fear of Herod, always haunted by fears. afraid of being good.
 Holy life, the Christ Consciousness. Kills out all the young life but does not reach the Christ child, It flies to Egypt, the subconscious. Joseph's dream.

The Christ child is protector ^{on} the inner planes of consciousness.
 It's hid away in the Soul's spiritual life, ^{Birth} of year.

The ~~star~~ wise men
 — represent inner sources of wisdom. The star that guides them
 is the light fixed in the heavens of spiritual understanding

Herod's troubles - The outer feels the growth within and instinctively feels that it is to be superseded.
 The soul is like a city with many people to please. The various departments

[97] 9

are ruled by department heads. They must be consulted.

Plattin' thoughts
Appositor to change
Heart grows spiritually cold.
Presents of wise-men, Stands up good thoughts and duds hands down from previous lives.

Dual States of Consciousness!

June 25th 1916