Two Undisciplined States
of Conscience,

The Prodigal Son,

Luke 15: 11-24.

Selfishness: "Give me the portion of thy substance that falleth to me."

"He came to himself."

"I will arise"

Lesson deals with propriety bear upon the consciousness of substance - "Give me the portion of thy substance" - "Master his substance in riotous living with harlots,

"We love you still—the latch string always hangs out for loved one,"

"Now all the publicans and sinners were drawing near unto him to hear him. And both the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them." — Luke 15: 1, 2.

merry.

" He was angry, and would not go on; and his father came out and rebuked him.

So, these many years do I serve thee, and I never transgressed a commandment of thine; and yet thou hast givenest me a kiss, that I might make merry with my friends; but when this thy son came, who hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou wilt not for him the father care.

 And he said unto him,
 Son thou art ever with me, and all that is mine is thine. But it was sweet to make merry and be glad; for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.
