a complete change
in consciousness.

The Passover.

Exo. 12:21-28

① What does the "passover" symbolize?

② What do the first-born of the Egyptians symbolize?

③ What is symbolized by the lamb that was sacrificed, and by the various commands concerning it?

④ In our overcoming are we only to keep our thoughts right, or should we consciously change our outer habits also?

⑤ What does the "blood" symbolize to the student of Truth?

"Behold, I make all things new."

Orthodox Jews purchase new clothes for Passover week.

New dishes are bought or borrowed from the stores.

New scutensils are sent for the kugogogus.

The houses are cleaned and set in order.

Egypt represents physically that part of the body below the diaphragm.

The various plagues brought upon the Egyptians by Jehovah through Moses (the law) are symbolical representations of conditions that are set up in that domain of man's organism when the president of 1920, Pharaoh, resists the efforts of the spirit to free the life forces and raise them to higher levels,

The death of the first born of the Egyptians represents the end of the ~~thought~~ of physical generation as the fulfillment of the divine law of life per~~se~~ separation. The first born of the Egyptians is the consciousness that life is spiritual and that man is the son of God, instead of the son of man. "Call no man on earth your father, for one is your father, even God."

The lamb of God.

The innocent, pure, uncontaminated life of Spirit.

Abel was a keeper of sheep - representing the ego that controls the spiritual life in man.

Abel was slain by Cain - Cain means possessor - selfishness.
The selfish ego slays or kicks out the spiritual life.
