

RIGHTEOUS DESIRE

NOV. 8, 1931

ORIG. Mss.

Sunday Nov. 8th 1931.

Righteous Desire

Paul in Ephesus

Acts 19:8-20.

Paul worked at least
 making from before
 sunrise to an hour before noon, then he taught five hours,
 according to an auctioneer who has patched up various scriptures and authentic MSS.

Sick people were cured by mere contact with handkerchiefs and aprons which Paul had touched.

When the woman touched the hem of Jesus' garment she was healed, and Jesus felt the virtue go from him.

Was this magic? or that is void of scientific truth, or was there a hidden cause?

It is said that tests have demonstrated that 45 per cent of school children are superstitious. What is still more surprising, a group of professors and their assistants at Harvard University, seventy three per cent confessed that in their daily life they had little habits and customs indicating that they were superstitious.

Who among you will not go on a journey on Friday,² or occupy room 13,² or who will not arrange to break the number when 13 are found sitting down to table²

"Superstition is the religion of feeble minds."

Emerson says, "It is the finite that suffers; the Infinite lies stretched in smiling repose."

Job says, "There is a spirit in man, and the breath of the Almighty giveth him life."

We are told that
 "munitions won the war"

That
 "Ships won the war"

That
 "The conservation of food won the war"

That
 "American troops won
 the war"

Whoknowsair "God won the war"

"My peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth give I unto you; let not your heart be troubled neither be ye fearful."

President Wilson in an address at Central Presbyterian Church golden anniversary at Washington said,

"This is a war of the Spirit of Christ against the powers of evil. Every effort, every sacrifice we make is made in the highest service of God. He has chosen the work for the world. After the war there will be a renaissance of his spirit; the nations of the world and the churches of the world will be bound together as never before in the history of man."
