Discouragement ⁽¹⁾

The Portugues once had a sale of all the goods of his trade Everything was displayed.

Keen edged daggers of jealousy -

Sledge-hammers of anger -

Crossbow of greed -

Arrows of lust and covetousness

Weapons of vanity and fear, envy and pride -

Under each was its price

In the place of honor, set apart from all the rest
was a small sledge, dentured and marked with use.

The name of this wedge was "Discouragement".

The price set upon this little wedge was higher than all the other tools combined.

Asked the reason for this amazing difference the Devil explained:-

"It is because this is the one tool I can use when all the others fail. Let me get that little wedge into a man's consciousness and the way is opened for all sorts of weak and beggarly elements.
That wedge has opened more doors to me than all my other weapons combined."

11 Thus caréance doct mien Cowards of us all -

And thus the nature here of resolution is sickle over with the pale cost of thought, and enterprises of great pitch and ^{with the prospect} moment, are turnt away and lose the name of action.

Give for the sake of poor Jesus.

Have the courage to give. Give for the world. Learn how to give with a big idea of your success and you will grow rich by giving.

Jehovah to Joshua - Josh 1.

There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life; as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. Be strong and of good courage; for thou shalt cause this people to inherit the land which I swore unto their fathers to give them. Only be strong and very courageous, to observe to do according to the law, which I have my servant command thee; turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest have good success.
Whithersoever thou goest,
