

Wasschamille N. J. May 12-13

Dear Charles. I am still at the Slesater. Royal came yesterday. and the girls & he have been having a gay time. He and I went to Phila. yesterday P. M. to mail his m.s. for weekly. We crossed round & took in quite a little bit of the City of Bro.
Loni. We did not take in any amusements for they keep picture shows & the like closed on Sunday. It is just 9 A. M. we have breakfasted & my Slesater has just arrived from his outing & campy trip. He went to have some last night - but missed his train. He's a good fellow all right.
But it seems to me his last meeting of that spiritual impulse that we used to think so remarkable in a country girl.

traveler. Well, its a hard test to be in the world + stay in. His wife and daughters are full of social energy and are either going or having company, I mean the girls. Mrs. Decker is very much in love with her husband + his word goes here, mostly. Royal + I will go over to Moorstown this afternoon, + pay Clara Willits a visit. She is so very anxious to see him. Dear soul, I staid with her two days + two nights steady. but I could feel, her sister considered it an intrusion. So, I managed to get off by promising to return with Royal when he came. She tried so hard to make it pleasant for me, and I made so wonderful points, if only that old suspicion + fear could have been utterly overcome ^{from her mind} you know its quite a strange situation to be shut up in a big house with two, apparent, lunatics.
- Clara and her sister, indeed; all the people of Moorstown use the quaint dialect of the Duck. Clara would say to me often, "Oh if they could only stay with me long enough, I know they could change these terrible conditions, here." She's gotten it into her imagination, that nearly all the inhabitants of Moorstown are working to get her out of the way so they can get hold of her property there. It is a very beautiful place
- a corner, measuring 100 feet on one street, and 250 on another. They have a man to keep it in in order. She would whisper to me worship Such as - "She must not post a letter from Moorstown" to Kansas City - "They will not let it go" - She was affected almost to tears, because I gave her a large beautiful apple I had brought from N.Y. "I want an apple of all things" she said, "but - that knows, I must let ~~one~~ her that I don't eat; then she whispered "They have all been maddled with it or poison".

But for these hallucinations, she is greatly improved in her spiritual nature. Her face will light-up & she will tell me of such wonderful illumination and realizations that come to her, especially, since my visit to her.
By its weight for this long chain of propriety and her meek & ^{thus} ~~feel~~ that it is her religious duty to hold on to it, I should feel her case comparatively easy to demonstrate away. But - then it is again, the and of the causes of ~~the~~ her melody - that & a long affair
- But she is very sincere, and I long to see her face.
Royal & I will see her today & I will not part ~~these~~ till after our return -

Dear Charles - I am still at the Station. Royal came yesterday. and the girls & he have been here a long time. He and I went to the gallery P.M. to see his P.S. for weekly - He cannot come & look in Frank a little bit of the City of Boston form. We did not take in any names
- The way they keep picking slawst the like show on Sunday. It is going to be. We have had lectures & Mr. Slater has just arrived from his outings & camp trip. He seems to have a ~~last~~ ~~night~~ - but wishes his tea - He is a good fellow all right.
But it seems ~~to~~ ~~be~~ his last night
of that spiritual impulse that we used

Letter - Mr. S. & Royal went to Phila. this morning. Sleeter on his regular trip - Royal to look over. It is a - much of a trip from here to the City - 20 min. ride on trolley from this end to the ferry - 10 min. ride across the Delaware ferry thru the Sole. and whenever you choose to get off. These subway lines are wonderful. Just to think of riding under the City! There are also Trolley's roads center as over in both Phila & N. Y. City - - We have planned to take all the Sleeters that are available, to the City. Samed. on a look. we must get back to New York, Wed. I've been from there to week to-morrow. Don't think I'll take in Phila Centre & Street.
Would like to see the Feds' strength.

It would really take several months to get around satisfactorily - Miss Cody + a number, are waiting for me to give them a date in N.Y.
The folks in Phila don't know I'm here + so it does not make so much difference about seeing them.

5 P.M. Royal and I have just returned from Moorestown. Clara was glad to see us. She met us with such a bright-face, I did hope the work I had done was losing. But - we had not been in the house five minutes before the old, old theme was resumed. Her negations still outnumber her statements of Truth. We took her some fruit Royal brought - from Phila. she was delighted to have something maintained. If we encouraged it she would return to R.C. with us. She hinted it strongly. I don't seem to get into her head that one's causes with them their own condition-makers. ~~in the~~ ~~attitude they hold towards others.~~ I will not count any efforts at visit in vain. I've put too much into them. Royal made a good point for her today in showing her something new about her strength center. One discourge-ment in her case is that she has already read + tried - all these things over + over
- the only head way I have ever made with her is in the deep silence. I can get the better of her then. - Royal + the girls are loving music down stairs. They all sing. I think to day will end our visit - Sat. We will entertain them in Phila to-morrow and Wed will go back to N. Y.

Morning 19th - Had calls last night - one of our old subscribers. I hear praises of Unity every where. It is having a lot to do with the direction of metaphysics. I saw Mrs.
Nitzky here once + found some traces of I could I'd just slide in home + stay there. This running
