

CHARLES S. FILLMORE PAPERS (3026)

Summary Description

The papers of Charles S. Fillmore primarily document his work from 1903 to 1933 as minister of Unity Society of Practical Christianity in Kansas City, Missouri, and as author, lecturer, cofounder, and President of Unity School of Christianity through 1948.

The majority of the collection consists of Fillmore's instructions for individuals seeking spiritual guidance through practical Christ-based living. Sunday addresses, daily and weekly prayer meetings, and training lectures (in handwritten and typewritten formats) contain metaphysical interpretations of the Bible and chronicle Fillmore's 44 years of continuous service as a Unity minister.

Of equal importance to these lessons, although not as voluminous, are administrative and personal files containing various items dating from the founding of Unity in 1889 as a New Thought, Christian, healing, and prayer ministry that has grown to encompass a worldwide community.

Scope and Content Note

The papers of Charles S. Fillmore document primarily: 1) his work from 1903 to 1933 as minister of Unity Society of Practical Christianity in Kansas City, Missouri, and 2) as author, lecturer, cofounder, and President of Unity School of Christianity to 1948. Topics covered include Fillmore's instructions for students seeking spiritual guidance using metaphysical interpretations of the Bible as one alternative for practical Christ-based living. The papers of Charles S. Fillmore chronicle Unity theology and administration from its origin and evolution as a New Thought, Christian prayer ministry uniting the global community.

A significant portion of the collection consists of handwritten notes, outlines, and versions of lessons. These manuscripts were prepared by Fillmore for Sunday morning discourses, Wednesday and Sunday evening healing meetings, Friday morning prosperity meetings, various training classes (which evolved into the Training School), and radio broadcasts. Eventually, many of these talks were transcribed. While some items were then printed in Unity publications and compiled into books, others remained unpublished. At this juncture, however, a complete analysis cannot be easily undertaken as to which manuscripts have been reproduced. Some lessons are incomplete; manuscript fragments precede the collection.

The collection is divided into four series: an Educational Ministry File, a Pastoral Ministry File, an Administration File, and a Personal File.

EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY FILE

The Educational Ministry File is divided into six subseries, including the: 1) Handwritten Lesson File, 2) Typewritten Lesson File, 3) Reference File, 4) Correspondence School File, 5) Training School File and, 6) Book Manuscript File. The two Lesson Files are arranged according to a one- or two-word subject given by Cora Fillmore with the help of her secretary, Blaine C. Mays.<sup>1</sup> Because of the subjective nature of this process, it is necessary to access several key words in order to thoroughly cover a desired topic. For instance, "regeneration," "resurrection," "reincarnation," and "new birth" could be considered synonymous, and all should be examined. This archival finding aid inventories each lesson by listing the exact title used by Fillmore. Brackets [] set off editorial interpolations for instances when a title was not furnished by Fillmore himself.

The Handwritten Lesson File contains dated and undated handwritten notes, outlines, and versions of lessons prepared and used by Fillmore. The subject headings on these folders may not coincide with lessons from the Typewritten Lesson File.<sup>2</sup>

And most recently by David W. Jackson, who made approximately 100 additions and numerous clarifications to several folders in the Typewritten Lesson File.

Further verification between the Handwritten and Typewritten Lesson Files is needed to assure the Typewritten Lesson File contains stenographic transcriptions of lessons delivered by Fillmore. This file has long been labeled "Unpublished Fillmore." As with the Handwritten Lesson File, however, there is no present verification as to which lessons have been published, whether in part or whole. Some typescripts replicate original handwritten manuscripts found in the Handwritten Lesson File. As noted previously, the subject headings may not coincide, however. This file has been photo duplicated into a parallel file for research use; the inventory for this parallel file begins on page 139.

The Reference File includes dated and undated notes, humorous anecdotes, Bible excerpts and interpretations, in addition to extracts of chapters from Fillmore's books and articles in Unity publications. A sizeable portion of this subseries consists of quotations from notable, influential authors and scientists whom Fillmore relied heavily upon in his lectures. This material presumably constituted a research file for Fillmore.

The Correspondence School File contains lessons from the original preparatory course, both regular and advanced classes, dating from the Correspondence School's inception.

The Training School File consists of lecture notes and class transcriptions relative to the various courses taught by Fillmore at 913 Tracy, Unity Farm, and while on lecture tours throughout the United States. This file is arranged alphabetically by class title and chronologically thereafter. Since the Training School met more than once a year, an individual folder may contain more than one set of notes.

The Book Manuscript File includes manuscript and editorial copy for books written by Charles S. Fillmore or books published posthumously using compilations of his writings. Items separated from the Reference File and Training School File constitute a portion of this subseries. Also noteworthy are collected manuscripts for books that were at one time under consideration for printing, but have not been published to date. These include: Hidden Man of the Bible and The Story of Jesus' Soul Evolution.

PASTORAL MINISTRY FILE

The Pastoral Ministry File primarily involves Fillmore's ministerial role beyond his capacity as educator. Fillmore's "Special Service Manual" includes a compilation of services he created for baptisms, christenings, marriage ceremonies, and memorial services. Of particular interest are records of marriages and weddings performed by Fillmore from 1917 to 1946 ... the marriages of his children, many early Unity workers, and Center leaders are recorded. Original manuscripts for the Unity Dedication and Covenant (signed by Mr. and Mrs. Fillmore in 1892), the Statement of Faith, the "Prayer for Peace," and other notable prayers, blessings, and affirmations are included in this series.

that these subject labels coincide; this process has yet to be conducted.

ADMINISTRATION FILE

The Administration File documents Fillmore's managerial functions relative to the various departments of Unity School of Christianity. It is divided into five subseries, including the: 1) Office of the President File, 2) Society of Silent Unity File, 3) Field Department File, 4) Radio Department File, and 5) Education Department File.

The Office of the President File contains correspondence, Fillmore's annual holiday greetings to Unity workers, ministers, and correspondents, and his speeches dedicating Unity properties and speeches keynoting Unity Conferences and Conventions. Also included in this subseries are topics related to the International New Thought Alliance, Unity School Board of Directors, and interviews of Fillmore reporting the history, growth, and progress of the Unity movement.

The Society of Silent Unity File contains the oldest materials extant pertaining to the Unity prayer ministry, the Society of Silent Unity, and early publishing ministry, the Unity Tract Society. These departments (incorporated into Unity School of Christianity in 1914) are represented through indexes to membership certificates issued, sample membership certificates, class registrations, financial receipts, and lists of subscribers to literature when the printing ministry was named Modern Thought Publishing Company. Twenty booklets recording Society of Silent Unity prayer requests dating from October 23, 1894, through August 2, 1898, constitute a substantial portion of this subseries. These booklets enumerate the name and residence of the writer, the date and number of the request, and in most instances, an affirmation penned by Fillmore for the correspondent to apply.

The Field Department File includes topics generally connected to the current functions of the Association of Unity Churches. Ordination records and ceremonies, clippings and programs of Fillmore's field engagement lectures, and information relative to ministers and ministries (including Unity Church Universal and Unity Society of Practical Christianity) comprise the majority of this subseries.

The Radio Department File contains various broadcast announcements used from 1922 to 1934 when Unity messages were featured on local radio station WOQ.

The Education Department File contains lecture schedules from Unity Summer School in 1919 and reports from Unity Training School in 1931. Also included in this subseries are Fillmore's notes to speeches he relayed to graduates of the 1939 and 1940 Training School classes.

PERSONAL FILE

The Personal File contains biographical and genealogical statistics and documents, clippings, correspondence, graduation and ordination certificates from various institutions, in addition to a modest collection of personal effects.

NOTE: Primary material relating to Charles S. Fillmore is in several of the Unity Library and Archives' collections, including: the Unity School of Christianity Field Department Lecture Engagement Records, Graduation and Ordination programs, and the Unity Annual Conference materials. Unity School's Public Relations Department News Clippings (Board Routing) yield published evidence of early happenings relative to the Unity movement. Valuable material can also be gleaned from manuscript collections, including the papers of: Lowell P. Fillmore, Mary G. Fillmore, Myrtle Fillmore, W. Rickert Fillmore, J. Royal Fillmore, James Dillet Freeman, May Rowland, and Georgiana Tree West. Photographic images of Fillmore are stored with the Graphic Arts Still Photograph, Slide, and Negative collection.
